

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. We used to receive numerous calls a night, but since Indiana's Telephone Privacy law, these calls have been drastically reduced!! Makes our evenings our own again.